DataCorp becomes Montana-owned

Western Business Reports

DataCorp, formerly Writing by Design, has become a Montana-owned business. Owners Kurt Stickney and Mary Powell broke away from Texas-based Writing by Design in April and incorporated as DataCorp.

The Billings company provides custom database programming, individual and business' computer training, and web site design.

The company has also launched a new web site, www.dataman.cc. The company is still located at 211 Grand Ave. and can be reached at 670-9387.
